Home is Holy: Who is calling you? Are you listening?

We often reach out to God asking for help with our problems and answers to our prayers. But like any conversation, we need to allow time for God to talk to us too. In today's readings, we heard about how God called Samuel. At first Samuel didn't realize that God was calling him, but when he understood, his response was "Speak Lord, your servant is listening!" In a similar way, the first disciples followed Jesus and listened to what he was telling them. Next time you pray, take a little time to be quiet and listen to what God wants to say to you. Most often God's message is a very simple one—God wants you to know that you are special to him, and that he loves you very much!

First Reconciliation Reminder!

Students preparing to celebrate the sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time in February should be learning their prayers and working on their First Reconciliation materials. Parents, remember to sign up online for First Reconciliation interviews. You should have received an e-mail with details earlier this month.

Liturgy of the Word for Children

Did you know that Liturgy of the Word for Children is celebrated online every Sunday? This is a wonderful way for you and your children to celebrate the Scriptures together. Follow the link under "Liturgical Resources" on our website (sjf.org), or just click on the YouTube icon at the top of the page to be taken to our parish YouTube channel. There you will find resources for all ages!

HIGH SCHOOL TEENS

Gospel Recap: "Looking in All The Right Places"

Many teens, and even adults, struggle with their faith because they say they can't find God in this world. In this way, even modern-day people are like Jesus' close Apostles. They were looking for God and seeking God's hope in a world full of suffering and confusion. This is why people were following John the Baptist, who always pointed them back to Jesus. Jesus is just as wanted and needed in today's world, but many people don't believe in him, because they are looking in the wrong places. We need to remember that Jesus stays today right where he stayed 2000 years ago, when he walked the earth. You'll find Jesus with those people who are suffering, or those who may not be the most popular people to be with; like the homeless living out in the cold on our streets, or like the forgotten elderly in nursing homes, or those teens who may not have friends to support them. We can always find our Messiah working in the people who serve and help the most needy, and those people that we often write off. Go spend some time with Jesus where he stays. Watch as your faith comes alive. Then follow Him.

LifeTeen Online Activities -- Open to All High School Youth

This is an opportunity for SJF high school youth to connect with God and to go over some topics pertinent to this age group. We encourage all teens to be connecting with other Catholic youth during this tough time of COVID-19. Here is the link to the SJF Life Teen Youtube:

Did you know? Building a strong parent-teen relationship

As pandemic lockdowns continue, parents and teenage children are spending more and more time together. It is not always easy to connect with teens, because they often feel their parents do not understand them and prefer to confide in their friends instead. Nevertheless, the time at home offers an opportunity for parent-teen relationships to evolve and for trust to grow in developmentally appropriate ways. Teens need the guidance and support of a parent as an important balance to the permissive understanding of a “friendship” relationship. As children become teenagers, parental authority does not diminish but may be better served by involving the teens in a dialogue about rules and limits. For more information on building relationships with your teenagers, visit <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>. Isn't Anyone Listening?

It's something we do well. We would be happy to act as a sounding board as you work out solutions. Please give us a call, and leave a message for the Stephen Ministry at 310-541-1403.

Stewardship Reflection

“Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, “What are you looking for?” John 1:38

What are you looking for? Are you wasting your time looking for material comforts of the world? Or, is your heart longing for something deeper that can only be found by spending time with God? Take time, each day, in silence and ask the Lord what it is that He wants you to do.

Growing in the Word: Gospel of Mark

Jesus heals hemorrhaging woman (catacomb painting)

Despite the brevity of this Gospel the details provided of Jesus’ ministry are often more extensive than either Matthew or Luke. Mark provides a quickly moving narrative which stresses Jesus’ message about the good news of the king of God and Jesus himself as the gospel of God. This five week series is presented by Misty Jesse, PhD, DMin. New units are added every two weeks. The class is available online at the St. John Fisher website beginning Jan. 6, 2021. To view please go to: www.sjf.org, then click on the Faith Formation tab at the top of the page. On the drop down menu click on Bible Studies, this will take you to a listing of Growing in the Word online bible classes. Enjoy!

A New Day: Grief Support Workshop

Everyone grieves differently; for some it is a very private process, others have networks of friends and family that meet their needs. But many people benefit from participating in a group with others who are grieving, such an experience can also be a way to honor your loved one as you begin the healing journey. St. John Fisher will be offering a five-week Bereavement Support workshop titled a “A New Day”. Currently the workshop will be offered through Zoom. The maximum number of participants for the workshop is 10 individuals. To register please call the Office of Evangelization at 310-377-4573. The workshop will be offered Tuesday evenings, 7pm to 9pm, Jan. 19th-Feb.16th.
