4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

"For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God"

Welcome To Saint John Fisher

We are a welcoming Parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, your past or present religious affiliation, your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, your self-esteem: you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved, and respected by the Catholic Community of St. John Fisher.

Join the Pastoral Council

The SJF Pastoral Council is looking for three adult members and one youth member to fill a two-year term that begins in the late summer. The Council, comprising parishioners that truly represent the diversity of our Catholic community, is a consultative body to our Pastor whose members serve collaboratively. The calling is to help guide St. John Fisher Parish into the future and build a vibrant faith community inclusive of all parishioners. If you're interested, please fill out an application found at sjf.org/about/pastoral-council/ or the parish office. Applications are due in the Parish Office by April 30. If you have any questions, please email Chris Ratliff, Council chair, at cratliff@sjf.org.

Voice Your Concerns

Now that indoor Masses have resumed at St. John Fisher Church, the Pastoral Council COVID-19 committee is reaching out once more to address your concerns. We welcome your thoughts and recommendations about Mass at SJF. Please email thoughts or suggestions to Dave Williams dwilliams@sjf.org, Janos Bakos jbakos@sjf.org, Joseph McGuinness jmcguinness@sjf.org, Sheila Bloodgood sbloodgood@sjf.org, and Steve Izuno sizuno@sjf.org

All Covid-19 Vaccines Morally Acceptable

I encourage all to be vaccinated, whether the vaccine is produced by Pfizer, Moderna, or Johnson and Johnson. Being vaccinated can be an act of charity that serves the common good amid the ongoing world-wide pandemic that has affected so many lives. The Vatican COVID-19 Commission has stated that: "all clinically recommended vaccinations can be used with a clear conscience and that the use of such vaccines does not signify some sort of cooperation with voluntary abortion."

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Fridays, after the 5:15 pm Mass, outside of the Church

Home is Holy: God loves us so much!

Some people think God is like an angry judge. They forget that God is a loving parent. God loves each one of us as his own children. Think of how much your parents love you. It may be hard for them to express all the love they have for you in their hearts. But parents love their children a lot, and always want the best for them. God wants that for us, too. God saw that we need to know God's love, and the best way to show us was to send his Son. But God didn't stop there. God allowed his Son to show us God's love all the way to the cross. Jesus laid down his life for us, and then rose from the dead to love us even more. Our God really loves us a lot!

HIGH SCHOOL TEENS

Gospel Recap: "Jesus Saves, but We Condemn"

Sometimes we think God is busy watching for opportunities to judge and condemn us, but Jesus clears all this up in today's Gospel. God doesn't look for opportunities to condemn us, but he is looking for ways to save us from lives without meaning and to save us from empty, Godless lives. Oftentimes, we condemn ourselves if we tend to ignore Jesus' way to live. Through sin and selfishness, we can end up building our own prison of self-pity. But God is wanting to free us, so he sent Jesus to show us the way. Isn't it great to know that God's only desire is for us to live faithful lives now, and all the way into eternity? And even if we spend most of our lives looking in the wrong places, God never abandons us or withdraws his offer of salvation. This Lenten season, let's decide to follow Jesus, and to shine his light for the world. In this way we will find true peace and freedom.

Did you know? How parents can help fight against sex trafficking

Sex trafficking is a serious threat in the U.S. and around the world. Parents can make a difference in their families and in their communities by educating themselves and their children. Know the signs of trafficking or abuse, including changes in behavior, nightmares, anxiety, and self-destructive behavior. Fostering trust and communication between parents and children is crucial to protecting them from exploitation. Stewardship Reflection

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son...”
John 3:16.

Of all the wonderful gifts that God has given us, the gift of His own Son is truly the greatest. How can we ever thank God for a gift like that? God does not ask us to sacrifice our own precious firstborn, but He does ask that we are grateful and generous with our God-given gifts, that we nurture and develop our gifts, and in gratitude, generously give back with increase our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to support the mission and ministry of our parish and greater Church.

Focusing the Gospel

Today’s gospel refers to an event that occurred as the people of Israel sojourned in the desert after their escape from slavery in Egypt and before entering into the Promised Land. The people, weary from their travel, complain bitterly against God and Moses. The people are punished for the complaints with serpent bites, and then saved from their punishment when God commands Moses, “Make a seraph and mount it on a pole; everyone who has been bitten will look at it and recover” (Num 21:8; NABRE). And now, in today’s gospel, Jesus is compared to this “sign of salvation” for when he is lifted up, “everyone who believes in him may have eternal life.”

SJF Lenten Retreat - Surrender, March 14-16

Our Scriptures and the lives of our Saints are full of struggles, evasions, rebellions and then Surrender, the solution that was there all the time. Father Patrick Dooling will present three evening sessions 7:00-8:30pm. Sunday, March 14: The Surrender of Faith. Monday, March 15: The Surrender of Love. Tuesday, March 16: The Surrender of Hope. This Lenten Retreat will be held at St. John Fisher Church. Seating is limited, social distancing and health protocols will be observed. Face coverings will be required at all times. The event is free of charge and will be live streamed each evening. For questions, please call the Office of Evangelization 310-377-4573.

Connect Groups - Be a Better Person

Men and women, get help from the Bible for daily living in one of our Connect Groups. We start with a topic such as how not to be so quick to take offense, see what the Bible tells us about it and then discuss how it applies to our daily lives. Come to a zoom meeting on Thursday, March 25th at 7 pm or find another Connect Group to suit your schedule. Contact Martha Newton at sjfconnectgroups@gmail.com.
