Welcome To Saint John Fisher

We are a welcoming Parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, your past or present religious affiliation, your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, your self-esteem: you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved, and respected by the Catholic Community of St. John Fisher.

Hospitality Ministers Needed!

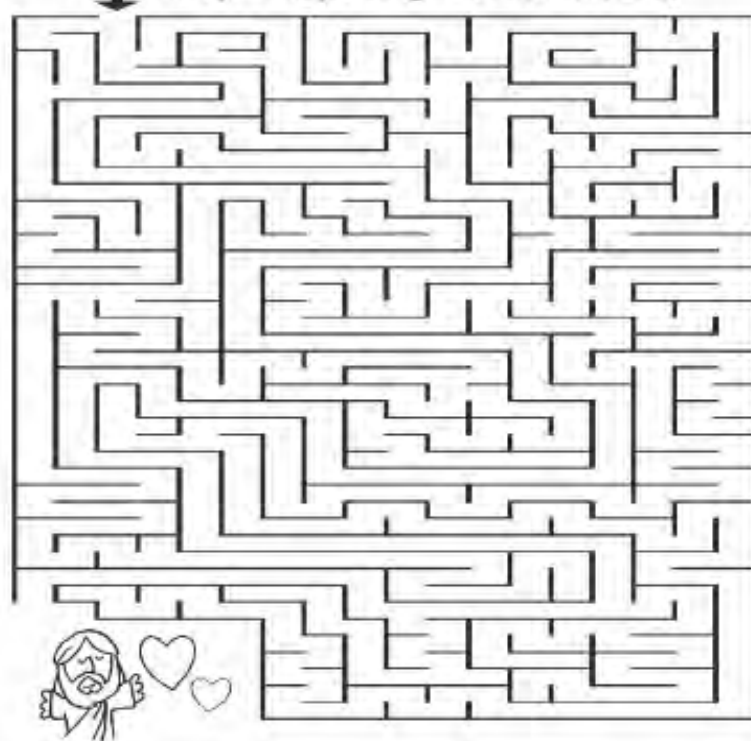

Remember when the Gathering Plaza was truly a gathering place? Remember when we had coffee, donuts, smiling faces and fellowship after Sunday Mass? We'd like to bring back Sunday morning Mass Fellowship and we need ministers of hospitality to host the tables. This is a great way to meet fellow parishioners and their families. Please call the Parish Office at 310-377-4573, if you can host a table at one Sunday Morning Mass each month and let us know your Mass preference.

Support SJF Electronically

When your summer travels take you away from Sunday services, eGiving lets you continue to support St. John Fisher and the ministries you cherish. You can sign up from your computer, smartphone or tablet, and plan your summer offertory by setting up a recurring donation. eGiving sustains our parish through the busy summer months. You'll provide us with consistent support, even if you're away on a Sunday, so the programs, services, and ministries that mean so much to our community will never miss a beat. Sign up today by visiting faith.direct/CA436, or text 'Enroll' to 424-352-7722. Thank you for your continued support of our parish family.

Home is Holy: This is my Body, This is my Blood

When Jesus told his followers that unless they eat his flesh and drink his blood they will not have eternal life, many of them left. They could not accept this. If we are honest, we can understand why they had a difficult time with this concept. But there were some followers who did not leave. Peter was one of them. Did he understand? Probably not. Still he said he was convinced that Jesus is God and that was enough for him to accept every word that came from the mouth of Christ.

St. Teresa of Calcutta - Mother Teresa - said, "God does not expect us to be successful, only faithful." Even if we don't understand, we can still be faithful to the teachings of Christ.

During the Mass when the priest repeats Jesus' words "This is my Body; this is my Blood," we don't need to analyze it, question how it could be, or wonder why Christ would choose to come to us in this way. We can just be thankful that he does!

School Student Non-Discrimination Policy

The school, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.

The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs.

Did you know? Practice empathy at home to prevent bullying

No parent sets out to raise a bully, but children grow and develop into their own people as they go out into the world - and it starts at home. One way to help your child foster healthy, kind relationships is to work on building good habits at home. Reward kindness and empathy when you see it. Comment on instances of sharing, of kindness, of pride. Help your child understand what it means to empathize with someone else, or to be kind in different situations. For more information, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Parents: how not to raise a bully, the ten things you must know. Part Two," at <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>. Parish Safeguard the Children Contact: Justin Fontenot, 310-377-4573 x136, jfontenot@sjf.org.

Rachel's Vineyard - "Healing after Abortion" Retreat weekend

Rachel's Vineyard retreat is being held October 29 - 31, for men and women struggling with the emotional and spiritual pain of abortion. The retreat is designed to help participants work through repressed grief and anger in a safe, nonjudgmental setting and come to acceptance, healing, and hope for the future. Developed in the Roman Catholic Tradition, it utilizes spiritual exercises and rituals to help grieve the loss of unborn children and to accept God's forgiveness. All inquiries and registrations are confidential, please call 323-577-5693, for more information.

Interested in helping Children in Tijuana?

For almost 40 years the Agape Ministry has been making one-day trips to Tijuana, to personally deliver food, clothing, school supplies and more to five charities. They work with unwed teen mothers, special needs children, a kindergarten for the poor and one that welcomes anyone in need. Agape also sends monthly checks and depends on PV Resale, Obra Buena and individual donations for funding. But most important, to continue our work, Agape urgently needs a few more parishioners who are over 18, have passports, ideally speak some Spanish and can drive their or another member's car across the border. The powerful emotional experience of warmth and love from these dedicated Tijuana caregivers and the joy in the eyes of the children is truly unforgettable. For more information email Barry Cossette at: BarryBJC007@hotmail.com.

Celebrating Lives

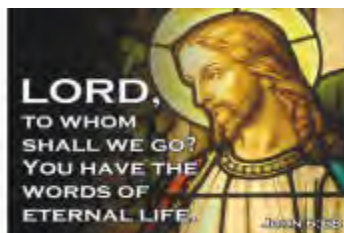

Do you have a family member or friend who has been or is a member of St. John Fisher, contributing to the parish through ministry and faithful discipleship? We would love to celebrate our parishioners who have built up our community of faith over the past sixty years. Their gifts of time and talent have shaped us and provided examples of discipleship for future generations. We invite you to share their stories and pictures so that we can showcase them in the bulletin and the website throughout the year. To submit email: mjesse@sjf.org.

Stewardship Reflection

"If it does not please you to serve the Lord, decide today who you will serve. As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." Joshua 24:15

When we commit to serve the Lord, we must be willing to become a disciple in the work of the Lord. A disciple is a person who spends time in prayer every day, joyfully participates in charitable works and generously supports their local parish and Church mission. If we say we serve God, we must actually do something and not merely talk about it.

Focusing the Gospel

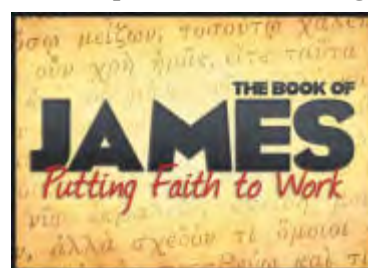

In today's gospel reading the crowd following Jesus was confused by his proclamation, "Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood you do not have life within you" (John 6:53). This is hardly surprising. Was this nomadic preacher really inciting them to cannibalism? Their outrage and astonishment led many of Jesus's disciples to "return to their former way of life." In the Christian faith we realize there are many things we might not fully understand or comprehend. Instead of rejecting the Lord's words and actions that we might not understand, we are called to meditate on them and even to struggle with them until we are blessed with the nourishment and insight they bear.

Great Adventure: Book of James

Grow your faith in a Connect Group. We are small discussion groups of adults. We meet to learn life wisdom from the Bible and each other, pray and spend time together. One such group is going to study The Great Adventure: James Pearls for Wise Living Series. This group is facilitated by Stephanie Tellez Reilly and meets at 7:00 pm. on the 2nd and 4th Thursday of each month. To register or for more information contact Stephanie at satellez13@hotmail.com.
