Home is Holy: Do not be afraid!

We hear two stories from scripture today about widows giving up everything they had. Turning everything over to God can be very scary! But we also have the reassuring words of Elijah— “Do not be afraid!” Sometimes we have to call on our faith to give us strength to help others, even at cost to ourselves. Today children at the 9 am Mass will receive red, white, and blue bracelets, reminding us this Veterans’ Day of those who have given us so much.

Can your family help another family?

Would your family like to do something special this Advent? Help your children learn the blessings of giving by participating in the St. John Fisher Adopt A Family program. Needy families at Sagrado Corazon parish in Cudahy are hoping you can “adopt” them, to provide the Christmas they would not otherwise be able to celebrate. Call Margaret Johnson to volunteer or for more information. You will be glad you reached out to the needy in this special season.

We will meet at 10:50 am downtown near Moskatel’s Store at 738 Wall Street. Bring 20-24 lunches for each member in your group. Contact Ricardo at rmata@sjf.org to get an info flyer and to register.

Gospel Recap: “Keep an Eye Out for Widows”

Jesus talks about role models in this week’s Gospel. He contrasts the scribes and the rich people with the poor widow. Jesus says the scribes call attention to themselves, seeking the crowd’s praise. Some of the rich people make large donations, but neither of these examples of giving requires much sacrifice. In sharing about the widow with his disciples, Jesus highlights her quiet sacrifice to her church from a meager income. (Widows were some of the poorest people in ancient Israel.)

Where do you look for your role models today? Our culture says to idolize fashion models, athletes, and actors, who are all over paid. So keep a look out for others making a quiet but significant contribution of their talents. Think about someone at your school or even at your own parish. Look around for real role models in your life. Adolescence is a time for you to discern these things, so keep an eye out for modern day “widows.”

Did You Know? Scope out your surroundings while children play

Parks are great places for children to play freely, test limits, and make new friends. But because they're such popular play zones, that makes them attractive spots for predators. Parents can take concrete steps to ensure their children's safety when they go to local parks and playgrounds. Take note of the people around you — especially adults who are alone in the area, on the playground or in nearby cars. Notice the families nearby and keep track of who is playing with your child. Paying attention to your surroundings can help you enjoy your time with your children, while keeping them safe. For a copy of the complete VIRTUS® article "Scope out your surroundings while children play," visit <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>. Parish Safeguard the Children Contact: Margaret Johnson, 310-377-4573 x136, mjohnson@sjf.org.

Inquiry sessions are offered all year and take place the first Sunday of each month (except for Holidays) at 10:30 am in the Parish Conference Room. Pius X, 1835-1914

Known as the “pope of the Eucharist,” Pius X was born Joseph Melchior Sarto in northern Italy. After being ordained for the Treviso Diocese in 1858, he served in small parishes before being named diocesan chancellor and spiritual director of the seminary. Pope Leo XIII named him bishop of Mantua in 1884 and a cardinal and patriarch of Venice in 1893. He was elected pope in 1903. During his pontificate, he lowered the age for receiving first Communion, encouraged daily Communion and daily Bible reading and promoted biblical study.

Stewardship Reflection

“I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living.” Mark 12:43-44

Jesus gets right to the point, we are all called to give money to support the mission of the Church, regardless of our circumstance. No gift is too small or insignificant! Giving money to support the mission of our local parish is a matter of our faith, just like praying and participating in parish ministries. When you make a financial offering, is it from your “first fruits” or from what is “left over”?

Veterans Day Brunch

In celebration of our military men and women who served this country in the past and those who currently serve this country. This Sunday, November 11th, Veterans Day, we invite Veterans and their families and friends to a special breakfast, including a guest speaker and a ceremonial procession by the Knights of Columbus. Brunch will be served in Barrett hall after the 9:00 am morning Mass. Thank you for your support!

New Methods-Bishop Barron, Nov. 14

Adult Faith Formation is hosting Bishop Barron’s four-part series on the New Evangelization. The presentation will be on Wednesday, November 14th from 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm in the Parish Conference Room and will focus on “New Methods.” Flyers are available in narthex and also in the parish office. Each presentation includes the viewing of a DVD followed by a facilitated discussion. Open to all, light hospitality provided.

Today’s Second Reading, Heb. 9:24-28

The writer of Hebrews continues his teaching to Jewish converts about the eternal priesthood of Christ as the completion of the priesthood originating with Moses and Aaron. In the sacrifice of his life, Christ has won salvation for those who have died; he will return at the end of time to gather the surviving faithful to God’s dwelling place.
