Home is Holy: Working for the kingdom of God

If you were able to invite just five people to your birthday party, who would you include? What if next month one of those five people had a birthday party and didn't invite you? It is normal to expect people to return a kind gesture, and seems unfair when they don't. Jesus reminds us that people have value even if they can't repay our kindness. Sometimes it can be hard to work to bring the kingdom of heaven to others, but that is what we are all called to do. Whether you are a student, scientist, engineer, parent, teacher, or anything else—your primary job is to bring God's kingdom to life here on earth. Today children at the 9 am Mass will receive a special "hard hat," to celebrate Labor Day and remind us that we all work first for God!

SCREENAGERS September 29: Save the Date!

Are you watching kids scroll through life, with their rapid-fire thumbs and a six-second attention span? Physician and filmmaker Delaney Ruston saw that with her own kids and learned that the average kid spends 6.5 hours a day looking at screens. She wondered about the impact of all this time and about the friction occurring in homes and schools around negotiating screen time—friction she knew all too well. Through poignant, and unexpectedly funny stories, along with surprising insights from authors, psychologists, and brain scientists, SCREENAGERS reveals how tech time impacts kids' development and offers solutions on how adults can empower kids to best navigate the digital world and find balance. Don't miss this film! Parents, grandparents, and teens are warmly invited to attend, 10:30-11:45 am Sunday, September 29, in Barrett Hall.

HIGH SCHOOL TEENS

Confirmation Classes for September

Year 1 Class begins on Sunday, September 15, from 2:50 pm-6 pm. All Year 1 Candidates need to be present with one parent to start off the program. This afternoon includes a ritual at 5 pm Teen Mass.

Gospel Recap: "Who's at Your Lunch Table?"

Think for a moment about the high school cafeteria (or the cafeteria at your workplace). Over there are the jocks. Then you can see the drama club. There's the band students. But off to the side you see that one person who always eats alone. Who will you eat with? Who wouldn't you want to be caught dead eating with? Those are the same questions Jesus asks in today's Gospel. Parties and meals are social time. It's pretty normal to share that time with your friends and the people you know who share your interests. But sometimes friendships can become cliques that exclude or look down on others. Jesus is calling us to expand our circles of friends. This is because many people need our company. Meals were a big deal in Jesus' time. He brought outcasts to meals with people of honor. He ate in the homes of people who were considered sinners. Jesus' meals revealed God's Reign--where everyone has a place around God's table. So try to reach out this week and invite someone to "your table." Honor the people that others forget. In this way you will be continuing the Reign of God's Kingdom, right here on earth.

St. John Fisher School Welcomes Returning and New Families

Classes began on Monday, and St. John Fisher School welcomed forty-three new students from thirty-one new families. While students were busy unpacking, meeting their teachers, and greeting their classmates, the eighth grade class (REACH 2020) reminded all of us that one of our missions is to serve others. The annual Tools for School collection started with a bang, as students filled our shopping cart with supplies destined for the School on Wheels organization. The collection continues until Friday, September 6. All donations are welcome!

Back to School Night was held on Monday evening; Mrs. Hudani, faculty, and staff met with parents to discuss procedures, expectations, and curriculum.

We gathered for our first all-school Mass on Wednesday to thank God for the gifts of our families, our friends, and our school. Thank you to Mrs. Guenther and the St. John Fisher Student Council for leading the Mass.

The annual Back-to-School BBQ is on Sunday, September 15.

Did You Know? The right kind of touch is important for children

Children are often naturally affectionate and trusting, and this can lead to unexpected hugs or touches that indicate their love for the adults in their lives. For adults who are aware that some touching can be inappropriate or can appear to be a boundary violation even though it was initiated by the child, it can be difficult to respond in these instances. Healthy, appropriate touch is important for children. Use these instances as teachable moments where you can affirm your affection in words and guide an appropriate touch by description and example. Some examples of this could include patting a child on the shoulder or back, high fives, holding hands out of the classroom or when crossing the street, or helping a young child tie his shoelaces. As part of our commitment, the Archdiocese has updated the www.archla.org/protect website with valuable information and resources on how to protect our children and young people from child sexual abuse. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "The Healing Power of Touch, Part II" at <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.
