PASTOR'S CORNER

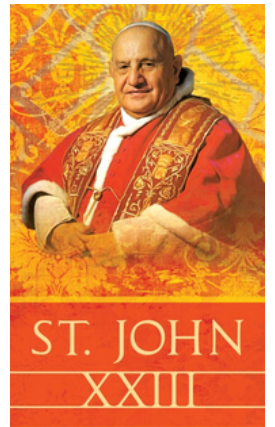

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

When we look at the saints, holiness can sometimes feel overwhelming. Yet Pope St. John XXIII—affectionately known as "Good Pope John"—showed us that sanctity is found in simple, daily choices.

In his personal spiritual journals, he shared ten daily resolutions built on a gentle principle: "Only for today." He recognized that God does not ask us to carry the burden of a lifetime all at once—only to walk faithfully with Him for the present twelve hours.

Here are Pope St. John XXIII's ten simple rules for growing in grace, charity, and peace, one day at a time:

1. Only for today, I will seek to live the livelong day positively without wishing to solve the problems of my life all at once.
2. Only for today, I will take the greatest care of my appearance: I will dress modestly; I will not raise my voice; I will be courteous in my behavior; I will not criticize anyone; I will not claim to improve or to discipline anyone except myself.
3. Only for today, I will be happy in the certainty that I was created to be happy, not only in the other world but also in this one.
4. Only for today, I will adapt to circumstances, without requiring all circumstances to be adapted to my own wishes.
5. Only for today, I will devote ten minutes of my time to some good reading, remembering that just as food is necessary to the life of the body, so good reading is necessary to the life of the soul.
6. Only for today, I will do one good deed and not tell anyone about it.
7. Only for today, I will do at least one thing I do not like doing; and if my feelings are hurt, I will make sure that no one notices.
8. Only for today, I will make a plan for myself: I may not follow it to the letter, but I will make it. And I will be on guard against two evils: hastiness and indecision.
9. Only for today, I will firmly believe, despite appearances, that the good providence of God cares for me as no one else who exists in this world.
10. Only for today, I will have no fears. In particular, I will not be afraid to enjoy what is beautiful and to believe in goodness. Indeed, for twelve hours I can certainly do what might cause me consternation were I to believe I had to do it all my life.

As we remember the words from our beloved Pope, St. John XXII, let us also remember those who have passed before us. As the month of November begins, our hearts turn in prayer toward those we love who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. I invite you to join us for our All Souls' Day Mass of Remembrance on Monday, November 2, at 7:00 pm. This Holy Mass offers us a sacred space to gather as a faith community, light a candle, and bring before the altar the names and faces of our beloved departed—especially those who have passed away in this recent year. Though we feel the deep sorrow of their absence, we do so anchored in the hope and light of the Resurrection. Whether your grief is fresh or a quiet companion from years past, please come as you are to find comfort in Prayer, Scripture, and Community.

I pray that your eternal rest be granted unto them, O Lord, and let your perpetual light shine upon them.

FOR CHILDREN

Day Of The Dead
"Día De Los Muertos"

What is it?
Day of the Dead (Día de los Muertos) is a traditional Mexican celebration that honors and remembers loved ones who have passed away. It is a joyful time to celebrate their lives, cherish their memories, and recognize that death is a natural part of life.

How to celebrate?
Families build an Ofrenda (Altar) at home filled with:

- Photos of departed loved ones.
- Candles & Marigolds to guide spirits home.
- Sugar Skulls (Calaveras) and favorite foods.

When?
November 1 (honoring children) & November 2 (honoring adults)

A Season of Remembrance

All souls' day

ALL SOULS' DAY IS A DAY WHEN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH ESPECIALLY REMEMBERS AND PRAYS FOR THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED. CATHOLICS PRAY FOR THOSE WHO HAVE DIED, PARTICULARLY THOSE BEING PURIFIED IN PURGATORY, TRUSTING IN GOD'S MERCY AND THE HOPE OF ETERNAL LIFE.

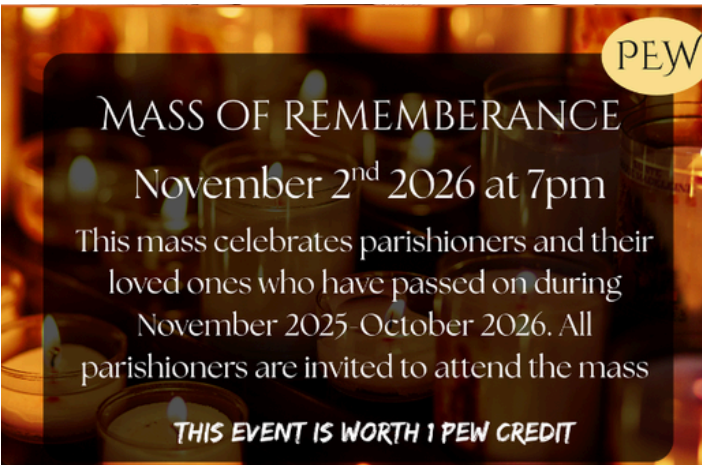

- FOCUS: PRAYER FOR THE SOULS OF THE DECEASED.
- TRADITION: A UNIVERSAL CATHOLIC OBSERVANCE.
- RELIGIOUS PRACTICE: ATTENDING MASS, PRAYING FOR THE DEAD, VISITING CEMETERIES, AND OFFERING PRAYERS FOR LOVED ONES.

Did you know? Mandated and Ethical reporting

Mandated reporters are persons who are legally required to report suspected cases of abuse, or instances where a child has disclosed abuse. These reports must be made to child protective services or law enforcement officials. Most professions that make a person a mandated reporter involve close interactions with children, like a teacher, school administrator or nurse. But regardless of the law, we all have an ethical obligation to report suspected or known child abuse, in order to keep children safe. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "The Facts about Mandated and Ethical Reporting" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

Today's Gospel Reflection: Matthew 22:34-40

(Reflection Resource: https://lacatholics.org/wpcontent/uploads/2026/09/F@H_SolemnAllSaints_2026Nov01.pdf)

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus presenting to us the Beatitudes. They represent the path Jesus offers so we can live as His true disciples. One of the Beatitudes calls us to be pure of heart, that is, to have God as our only treasure. When we practice the Beatitudes, we become more like Jesus and allow our hearts to be transformed. The Beatitudes bring us closer to our brothers and sisters because they help us leave selfishness behind and live with love and generosity.

Don't forget that we have Military Ministry collections this weekend and Food Pantry bags will be distributed this weekend to return on 11/7 and 11/8. What a wonderful way to practice our faith and live out the beatitudes by providing for those in need.
