Home is Holy: Easter is Near

After much pain, suffering, humiliation, and ridicule, Jesus turned over all that he had left to his heavenly Father. While our “sufferings” this Lent of fasting, almsgiving, and prayer cannot compare to the suffering of our Lord, we too are called to give all we have left to God. We are about to walk through Jesus’ suffering, death, and resurrection. Are you ready? What is left in your life that needs to be given to the Lord to allow you to fully celebrate Easter this year?

Gospel Recap: “It’s Not the Persecution. It’s the Response ”

You know the persecution of Christ really started a long time before Good Friday. It started the first time in history one person persecuted another. And it has continued, without pause, since Jesus himself suffered and died for us. So where can we find help if our history is filled with so much pain and persecution? We can look to Jesus’s Passion and Resurrection. His Passion is really about Jesus’ response. Some scholars argue that Jesus did not know he would be resurrected. So just like us, he didn’t have the complete certainty of his future. Take a close look at this man during Holy Week. Despite his fears, uncertainty, and deep anguish, he focuses on God and others. Through God’s power, he offers the last hours of his life as a lesson for how his friends and followers can find some meaning in every hour of their lives. Yes, Jesus’s Passion still continues in our current times, but God’s power still inspires people to be courageous. Look at the Ukrainians, who are standing firm to fight for their stolen freedom. They are trying to stay focused under hostile tyranny and oppression. And our history is filled with those same types of heroes. Think of the rich history of our saints and martyrs...

Good Friday Collection

Pope Francis asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. This collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines. The pandemic hit particularly hard for the Christians in the Holy Land. Most of them depend on pilgrimages to work. In these times of Crisis, the Collection is also necessary to meet the basic needs of the people of God still living in this land where the Church was born. When you contribute to this collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with the Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church on the Holy Land. For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-Friday.

Easter Sunday Parking

Since Easter is one of the times of year when we are blessed with many visitors and friends, it is anticipated that the Masses will be full. If you wish to be seated during Mass in the church, please plan to arrive much earlier than usual. We are blessed to have the Boy Scouts of Troop 658 coming to help us with parking again on Easter morning. Please remember they are volunteers, and treat them with courtesy and patience!

Connect Groups

Encourage each other in day-to-day faith in a Connect Group as you get help from the Bible for "Making Sense of Life not Making Sense." We start with a topic, see what the Bible tells us about it and then discuss how it applies to our daily lives. Come any Monday through April 11 at 7:30 pm on zoom. Sign up at <https://sjfconnectgroups.wixsite.com/sjfconnectgroups>.

St. John Fisher Obra Buena

St. John Fisher Obra Buena (Good Works) financially supports the charitable outreach efforts of our parish. Your generous contributions make a significant difference in the lives of those in need. Obra Buena provides much needed funding to several local charities which are vetted annually by the Stewardship Committee and approved by the Peace and Justice Council. For more information, please call Misty Jesse at 310-377-4573 or email mjjesse@sjf.org.

Seeking Professionals for our Building Committee

As we approach our fundraising goal for the Msgr. Gilb Pastoral Center, we are moving to the next phase of Campaign 21: Completing the Vision. The Seven Last Words of Christ, Tre Ore

As Jesus hung on the Cross, he uttered seven last words of great meaning to those contemplating his passion and death. Let's take time out of our busy lives and sit back, listen and reflect with Bishop Robert Barron on the seven last words of Christ, as we allow the gravity and glory of Christ's Crucifixion bring us closer to him. Please join us at 7 pm on April 12, in the Fireside room. Refreshments will be served. For questions, please contact Hanan Tanios at hanantanios@yahoo.com.

This Week's Faith Sharing Starters

- Usually, the congregation is invited to play the role of the crowd in today's gospel. Looking at it now, which character(s) do you feel most drawn to? What about the scene makes you feel this way?
- Have you ever been devastated by a good friend? Were you able to move forward through that hurt? Has that relationship ended?
- If you were at the Last Supper, how do you think you would have reacted to the information that one of your friends was going to betray Jesus?
- Have you ever "emptied yourself" for another person?

What I Have Learned through the Pandemic:

Faith in Challenging Times-May 3rd

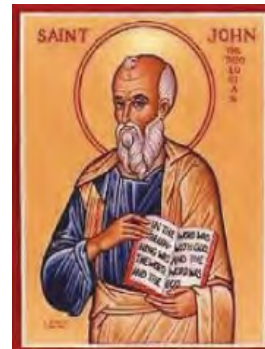

The South Bay Catholic-Jewish Women's Dialogue is excited to host their fifth annual conference. This year the event will be hosted by American Martyr's Church in Manhattan Beach. There will be two amazing speakers:

Rabbi Karen Fox and Claire Henning. To register for the conference, which includes lunch, please go to the conference website at: www.sbcjwd.com.

Gospel of John and the Johannine Letters

In contrast to the distinctly human Jesus of Matthew, Mark, and Luke, the image of Jesus in the Gospel of John is one of majesty and divinity. This gospel also references unique events not found in the other three gospels including the wedding at Cana, the Samaritan woman at the well, the man born blind, and the raising of Lazarus. In addition to the Gospel of John, we will also study the three Johannine Letters, their message, their significance in the early Christian community and their relevance in our lives today. The class meets on Tuesday evenings in the Fireside Room from 6:30 pm - 8 pm, April 19 to May 17. Books are available at $12, or bring your Bible. For questions, please call Misty Jesse, 310-377-4573 x 130.
