

What is Synodality?

Hosted by St. John Fisher Office of Evangelization

Presenter: Cecilia González-Andrieu, professor of theology at Loyola Marymount University and contributing writer for America magazine, will help us get beyond description into embodying synodality.

Beyond a concept describing it, synodality is a way of being in the world. What are some steps we can take as a community of faith to develop ourselves as active members and contributors to a synodal Church?
